

Walking Together

This is the year that, as a church, we'll engage our Scriptures, not just on Sunday mornings, but all week long! Buy your copy of We Make the Road by Walking by Brian D. MacLaren and follow along each week as the pastors not only preach on that Sunday's texts, but then provide opportunities to study and discuss them with our church friends in the days after that!

MacLaren, one of today's most-acclaimed Christian theologians, has created his own lectionary which takes readers through the entire Bible in one year, providing commentary that is "uncommonly accessible and arresting and also conversant with contemporary scholarship." Charles Scriven, book reviewer of The Christian Century raves, "For its potential usefulness in the congregation, this book is as good as sun on soil." As a conversation partner, MacLaren is sure to provide some thought-provoking, faith-empowering insights.

Various study groups or "learning circles" will be forming so that you can join in fellowship and opportunities for growth.

An initial organizing meeting is scheduled for Sunday, September 30 after worship. If you would like to walk together, sign up below, contact the church office, the Pastors or Mark Oricchio. Paperback copies of We Make the Road by Walking are available for purchase for $10. The e-book can be purchased at Amazon.
